

Current Reminders

- MAJOR RECENT CHANGE: For the 2019 crop year only, you have until 11/30/19 to pay policy premiums for corn and beans. If you do not pay your premium by 11/30/19, you will be charged interest for the months of October and November.

Approaching Deadlines

Last day to pay wheat premiums	9/30/19
2020 wheat sales closing date	9/30/19
Last day to pay 2019 Spring crop premiums to avoid interest	11/30/19

- Come see us at the Farm Science Review booth number #633 (corner Tractor x Soybean Ave). We will be sharing a tent again this year with Sunrise Cooperative.
- With only 1 day left in the price discovery period, the wheat projected price is $4.94. This price will be the basis for wheat planted this fall and will be finalized on 9/15/19.
- All bins containing 2018 production must be measured by a crop insurance adjuster or FSA personnel before adding 2019 production to it.
- Any acres being chopped for silage or being put to any use other than harvested for grain need appraised before doing so.
- Call immediately if you begin harvesting corn and beans and suspect you have a harvest loss. Claims for yield losses should be filed within 10 days of completion of harvest of the unit on the policy.

USDA Resources Available for Farmers Hurt by 2018, 2019 Disasters

“WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 9, 2019 – U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue today announced that agricultural producers affected by natural disasters in 2018 and 2019, including Hurricane Dorian, can apply for assistance through the Wildfire and Hurricane Indemnity Program Plus (WHIP+). . . Also, prevented planting supplemental disaster payments will provide support to producers who were prevented from planting eligible crops for the 2019 crop year.”
